TEACHER and FRIEND

A graduate of Syracuse University Mrs. Court-right first taught school in Moravia, New York. From the schools at Chazy, Seneca Falls and Binghamton, she came to Johnson City in 1939. Mrs. Courtright, head of the Mathematics Department, retires this year with a total of 28 years of teaching. An interlude of several years was spent prior to 1939 in the raising of a family. She has shared the last twenty-two years with us. We would like to share this book with her.

MRS. ANNE COURTRIGHT

MISS ETHEL HERBERT

DEAN of TEACHERS

When Miss Ethel Herbert came to Johnson City in 1916—she had two years teaching experience at Lowville and Massena. Miss Herbert—a graduate of Albany State College—and present head of the Social Studies Department has given 44 years to the youth of Johnson City. A fine record—a fine teacher—we are proud of her.

THIS ANNUAL -

Every two or three years someone comes up with the suggestion of music as a theme for the annual. This is not unusual as music is something vital to them. It reminds them of happy hours—the sound, the beat, the heart of the school year. We hope this annual reminds you of happy days for years, and years ----- and years.

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS

by Antoinette Gaeds

"Remember When" is one of the most popular sentence beginnings used by the Seniors toward the end of their long, hard pull of three years here at J.C.H.S. The kids, especially the seniors, begin this period of reminiscence every January and June. It's said in a way to reminisce, but then one begins thinking of some of the more comical and wonderfully warm events that have happened and all sadness is overlooked.

Let's take a look at some of the "Remember Whens" of this past year. First of all, remember when the Key Club beat the faculty in basketball? What a surprise! All the Key Clubbers turned up for the game in their "Sunday bests" and the faculty in their "uniforms." It was a rousing game, with Bill Misata, Mr. McDermitt and Mr. Rorke as the leading "fallers." Some of those belly-whoopers they took—ouch!

How about the crowning of Don Tchir and Sandy Forno as King and Queen of J.C.H.S.—remember that memorable occasion? Sandy turned up at the dance looking like a princess from story-land and Don looked like her knight in shining armor. A more perfect King and Queen there never were!

Remember when our school almost went up in pieces? You remember when someone tried to make nitroglycerine in the lab. It was a terrifying thought, but it gave some of our pupils with a more "drab" sense of humor something to laugh about.

How about the creation of the J.C.H.S. chapter of the F.T.A.? This new club for the Future Teachers of America got off on the right foot under the leadership of Miss Julio, Miss Sickler, and its very capable President, Jim Murch.

I'm sure everyone will always remember that "one-in-a-million" type day—Dress Up Day. All the girls went home at 3:40 with broken arches and all the boys with stiff necks. Everyone looked as neat as a pin, and it was surprising to find the changed attitude in the kids when they were all dressed up. Of course, it was a bit dangerous with those slippery soles and steel-tipped heels, and as one teacher so explicitly put it, "It sounds like starting time at Shangrilla when the bell rings to pass classes."

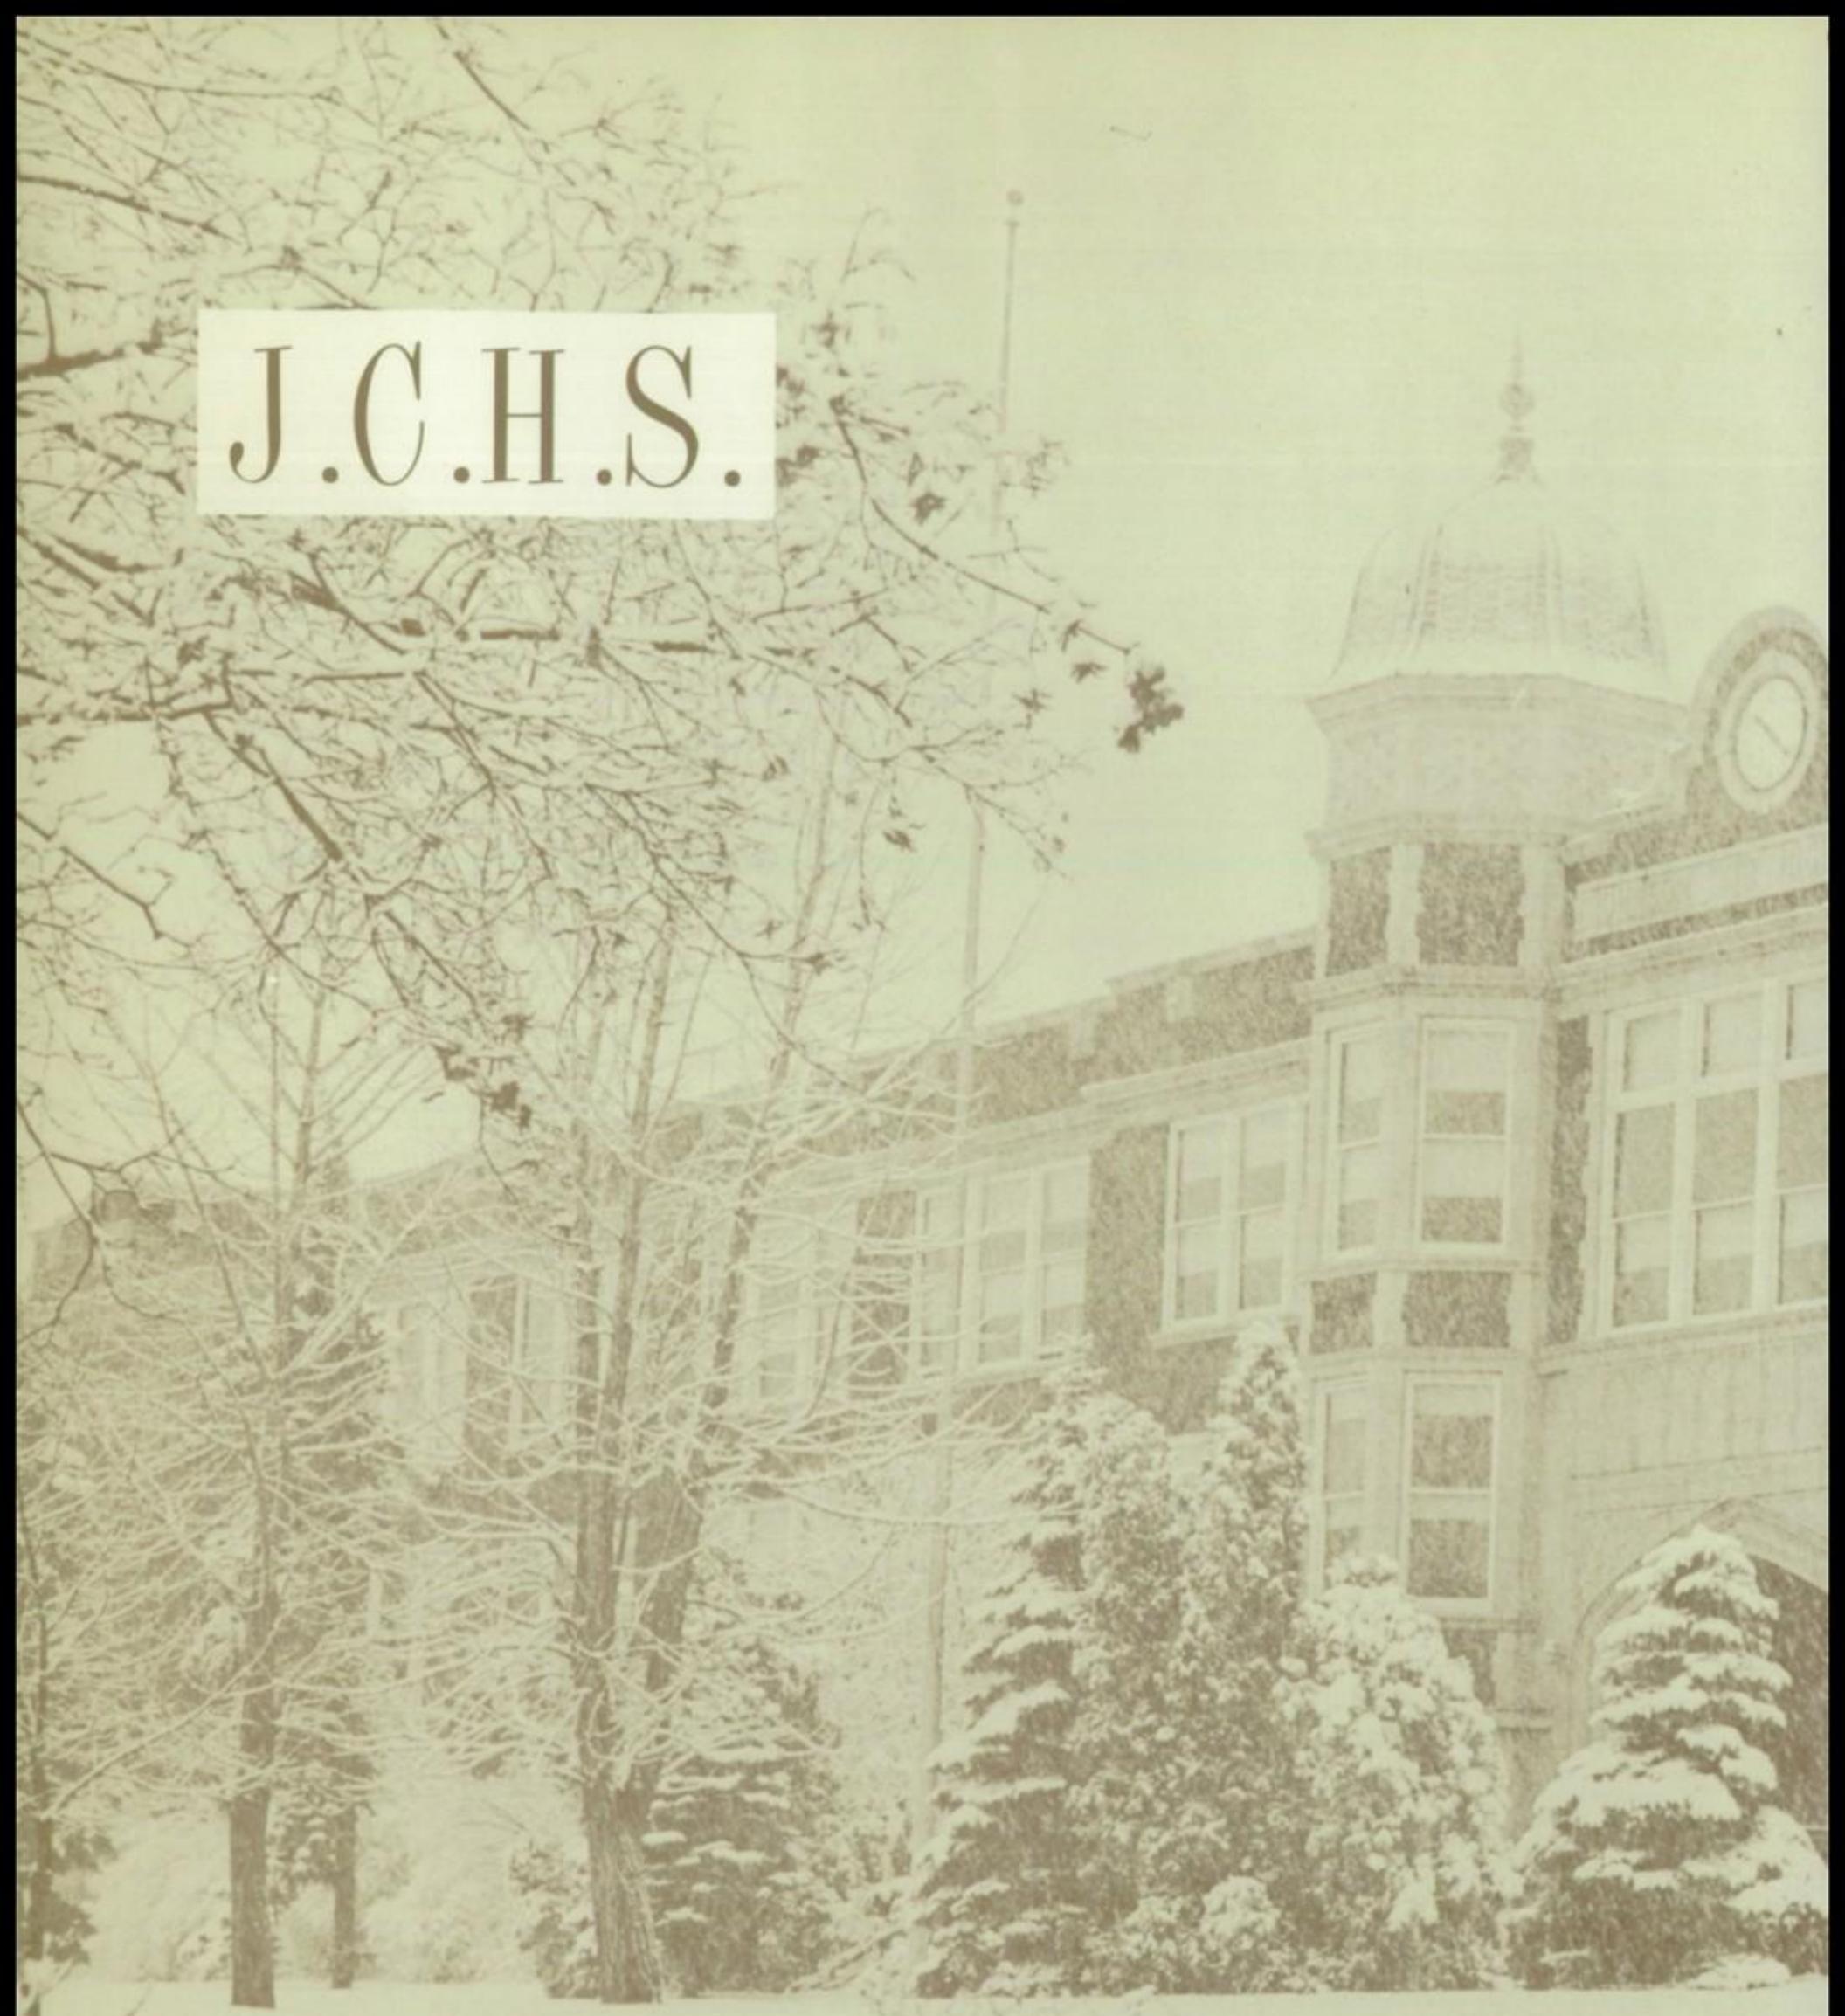

These are just a few of the "Remember Whens" of the past years. I'm sure that each one of us has our own personal "Remember When," that will remain in our minds forever, but we hope these few mentioned here will always have a place in your memory.

Hail the School that friendship's tether
Firm and true unite.
Loyal students bound together,
By the red and white.

Firmer still as time advances,
May our union be.
We will strive to serve thee better,
By our loyalty.

Love and service blended gladly,
Thus shall life be bright.
Hail to thee, Oh, Alma Mater,
Hail, Oh, Red and White.

Chorus:
School we love—J. C.—Live for aye,
In our memories.
May we keep the ideals fostered,
In our hearts by thee.

THE MAROON
JANUARY 1961
CLASS PROPHECY

A lot of our old pals came from out of town just to see us. Doesn't it kinda getcha right here?

Rose Angula came all the way from her Little Grass Shack where she's head dancer.

Terry Hardt & Larry Gorchakoff are appearing as the mucketeers in the Wizard of Oz, and who do you think the wizard is? Good ol' Bill Vought.

Rosa Bubas has reached the heights of Wall Street----Painting walls.

Daryl Mudge had Tom name one of his properties after her. I think it's now called Mudge's Fudge Company, the biggest fudge house in New York.

A couple of the old gang couldn't make our homecoming though. Billy Boy Baker is still at Brown U., but finally made his dreams come true. He's head cheerleader.

Anne Barzow owns her own leotar now and just couldn't get away to it.

Hawley had to skip our party & she founded some new education and is now the current principal Hig's.

Pat Kubik is up at the State Hospital, where her sewing finally paid off. She's sewing buttons on straight jackets.

But most of our good old pals are here. John De Groat is manager of Blonderella, but he managed to squeeze through and get here.

Linda Hatfield is still trying to master the art of Italian cooking and Tony's getting impatient.

John Morris and Paul Marcik own their own armory. At least they don't have to run down the street and pretend they're at war anymore.

Paula and "what's-his-name" are still breaking up. How many times does that make now, Miss Pavlik?

Dick Snyder is still blushing away.

Bill Morkin owns the Giant Market chain now--not the market just the chain to the parking lot.

Mary Kellogg has just learned to play "Whispering" as fast as wanted for class Day.

Beth Kricha is here with Carol Ruschanski. They're reminiscing about the good old days back in J.C. High

MAROON

KAREN STEVENS

"Hey kids, did you hear about Andie P.—she found a dead mouse in her locker." Yes, this and many more choice bits of gossip have been read in the popular, wide read school newspaper, "The Maroon." Laughter and joking can be heard throughout the halls of J.C. as a result of a previous "Maroon" publication. On behalf of this newspaper's editor-in-chief, Carol Hull, its terrific editorial staff, and its hard-working reporters and typists, the students of J.C. High look forward each month to receiving their new issue, "The Maroon's" fun-packed columns such as "These Halls Have Ears" and "The Shadow" make for laughter while other columns such as "Boy and Girl of the Month Activity" columns, the "Inquiring Reporter" and many others provide information as well as entertainment for the kids at J.C. High.

"Remember When" Brad P. ran over a few garbage cans while driving and was a little disappointed to find that they were empty.

"Remember When" the Maroon found out that Mr. Warner's 18 month old son calls him "Iggie."

You must "Remember When" certain football players were better known as The Twister, Piggy, Grub, Nose, Peroxide, Tree, Sam the Buzzard, Hunchback, Cheersie, Horse, and Burley. How can you tell these guys are all the best of buddies?

"Remember When" Andie P. was so thirsty that one afternoon in McCrory's she ran up to Carol K. and started to drink her soda and was she surprised to discover it was left over from someone who sat there before.

"Remember When" Tom Werts was followed by "The Shadow" and was overheard discussing divorces with a buddy of his. In study hall he was seen concentrating on the girls signing in and out of study hall while faking to be doing his solid.

"Remember When" "The Shadow" followed John Hearon and first discovered him in homeroom beating on his chest and yelling a tribal chant. John is widely known for his expression of Scupee-Doo upon entering a class and his expression of Yahoo when leaving a class.

"The Maroon" has an educational aspect also. The editorials give the students of J.C. a view of themselves through the eyes of the editor-in-chief. "Remember" the first editorial when the students of J.C. were convinced that being back in school wasn't as gloomy as it seemed to be. They decided that school provides a good social life and it also prepares one for his future life. "Remember When" the editorial about more participation in extra-curricular activities was written. I hope you took the advice by joining clubs to work for them instead of just using them as a front.

These and many other interesting articles are read about in "The Maroon". I am sure we will all remember these items and also many more. "The Maroon" is just one of the many things in high school to be missed by the graduating class when they leave J.C. We hope you will always remember the funny as well as serious thoughts. I know we, the senior class, can never forget our school newspaper, "The Maroon", and its capable advisor Mr. McCabe.

GIRL

I NEED A VOLUNTEER----- WHOA!

The image shows a single page of a publication, rotated approximately 30 degrees clockwise. The main feature is a large, bold, serif font headline that reads "ASK ANY GIRL". This headline is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the page. The rest of the page is filled with a dense, repeating pattern of the words "ASK ANY GIRL" in a smaller, regular font. These words are arranged in several horizontal rows, creating a textured, almost woven appearance across the entire page. The background of the page is white, and there are no other visible text, images, or markings.

SOPCHAK WITH SPORTS

by Michael Sopchak

Highly underrated by S.T.C. coaches, J.C.-E.S.S. game, earned the right of co-ownership of the S.T.C. crown. The Wildcats exhibited a fine display of spirit, desire, skill, and drive in overcoming previously unbeaten Southside. For his fine performance in this last game of the season, J.C.'s captain, Bill Baker, was chosen most valuable senior of the game. His jersey, number 31, will now be retired from further use at J.C. Much praise goes to Coach Diller and his aides, Line Coach Mr. Ciesielski and Jayvee Coach Mr. Rorke, for a fine season. J.C. had a star-packed team. Quarterback Phil Dembowski, end Larry Virgilio, and tackle Bill Misata won all-conference honors with Dembowski and Virgilio also making the all-central New York State Team. J.C. put seven men on the All-Triple Cities Team. Ted Mills, Gerry Orsley, Tom Werts, Bill Misata, Phil Dembowski, Don Tchir, and Larry Virgilio. With several starters and much of its depth returning, J.C. and Coach Diller are looking forward to a fine 1961 season.

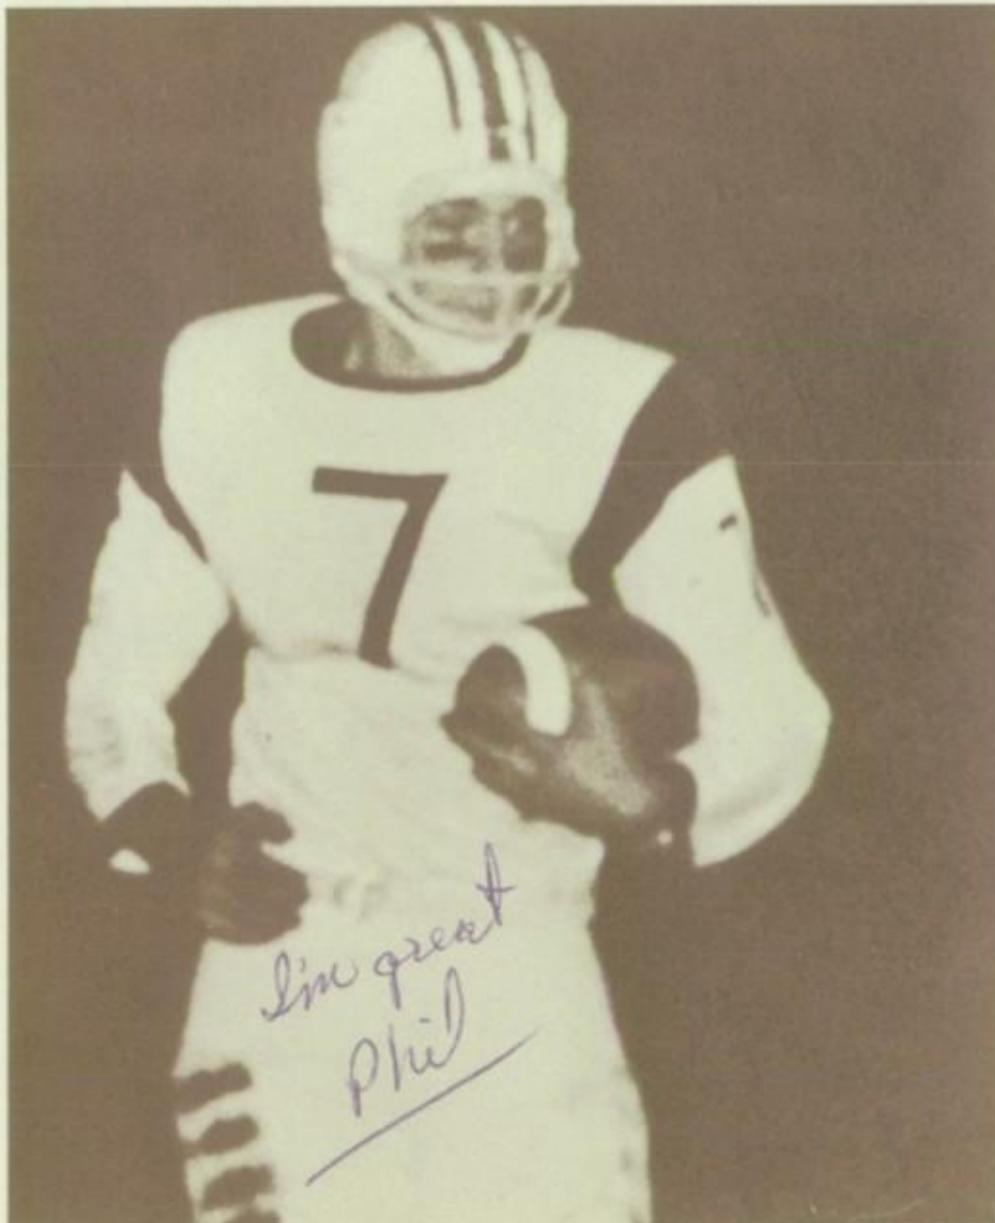

J.C., although having one of its worst baseball seasons in history, still ended up tied for third place in the Western Division of the S.T.C. J.C.'s only bright spot of the year was centerfielder Bob Hart. Bob received the team's Most Valuable Player trophy and won All-S.T.C. and All-Triple Cities honors. With many players returning next year, including the pitching staff of Phil Dembowski, George Kolba, and Ken Lubert, Coach Britain expects a considerably better 1961 season.

Carried on the shoulders of All-S.T.C.'er, Phil Yurecka, J.C.'s basketball team made an end of the season surge to finish the season in second place. At the end of the season, Coach Cordt's team was regarded by most S.T.C. coaches as the best team in the conference. In their first playoff game, however, J.C. was unable to adjust to North's slow-down tactics and was eliminated, 35-31. Yurecka copped all possible honors, being elected to the All-Triple Cities teams and winning the

S.T.C. scoring title with slightly less than a 20 points per game average. The rebounding of Art Northrup and Dick Polak and the shooting of Wayne Hawley helped J.C. come alive in the second half of the season. Although several starters are leaving, J.C. should have much strength next year!

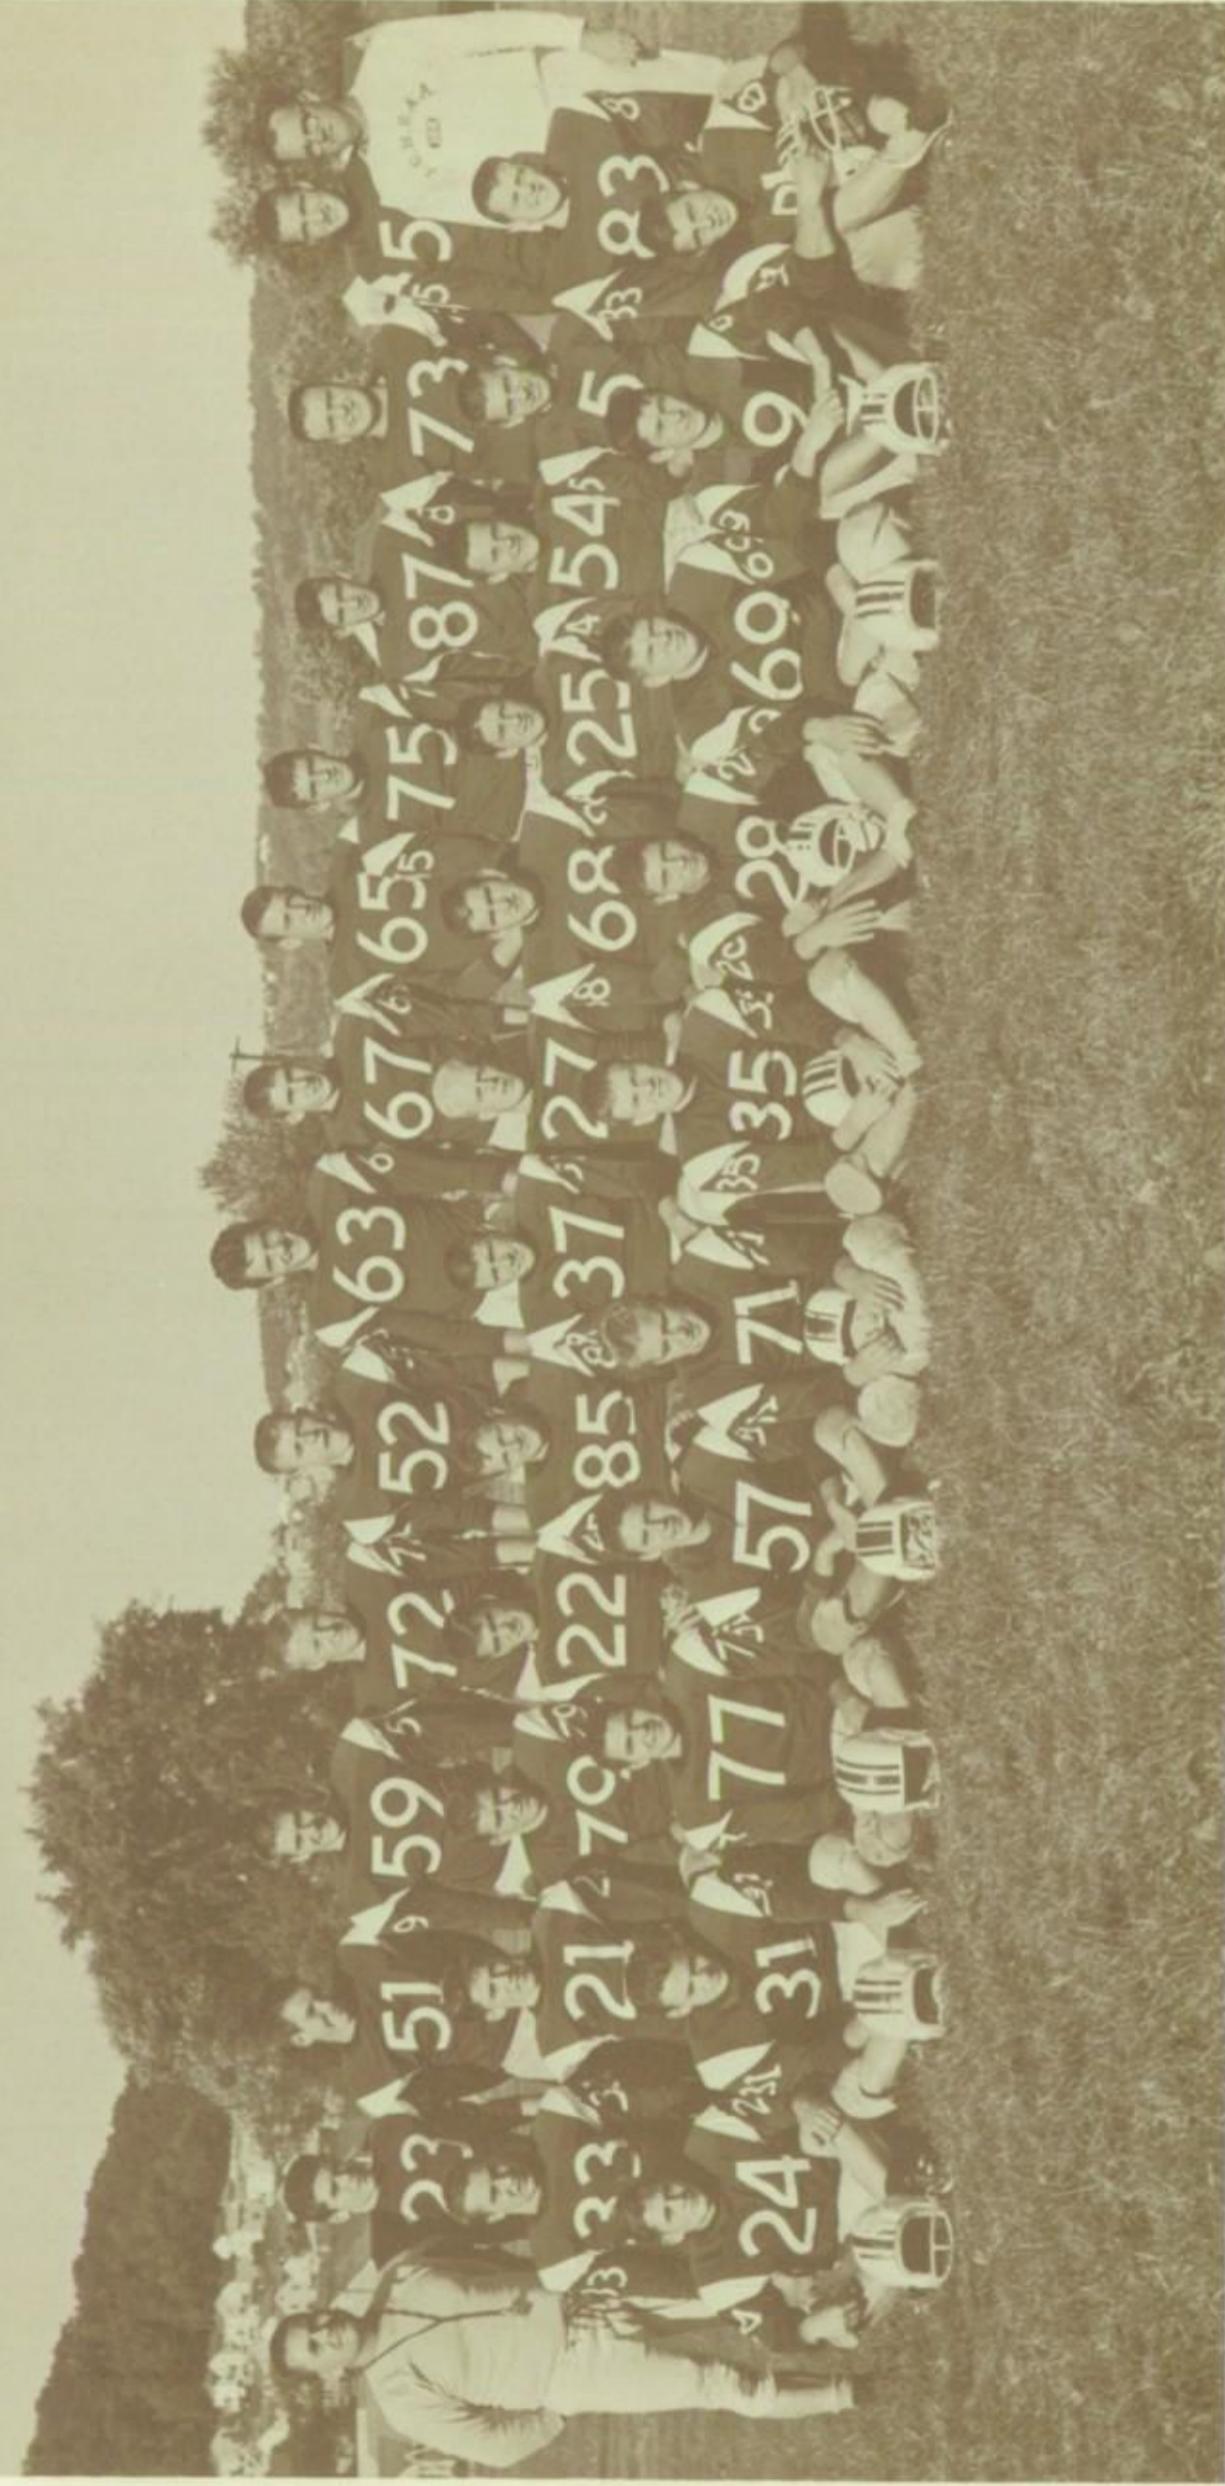

J.C.'s bowling and volleyball teams aren't to be minimized. The bowling team, under the direction of Mr. Clark, finished first in the conference with a 21-9 record. The main body of the team consisted of Steve Garrison, Gary Brooks, Bob Dodge, Ted Rajnes, and Bob Barsch.

J.C.'s volleyball team also won first place. Coached by Mr. Ciesielski, Bill Misata, Don Tchir, Doug Patz, Ted Mills, Joel Weingartner, and Mike Lutsic powered their way over S.T.C. opponents compiling a 14-4 record.

Johnson City's first touchdown in the first quarter.

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

BY PAT HAYES

Above those doors the word GIRLS is lettered. Below that archway pass the true athletes of Johnson City. (Plus several non-athletes whom we attempt to ignore). No admission is charged to these excitement-packed games, but just as much energy is expended by opposing players. Let's open those doors and see what's going on right now.

VOLLEYBALL—This is the season's first intramural sport. In the championship game this year the Junior's defeated the Senior's and for one entire noon, the Junior's superior smiles denied their class rank. A representative group of players also won the Triple Cities Championship at a Sports Day at Central High School. (See boys—you're not the only ones who can win championships).

BASKETBALL—Later this same year in that gym, contests of a different variety were witnessed. The ball was harder and so were the falls as the Seniors strove to regain superiority. And led by Anne Delaney, Fran Bradley, Carol Kacyvenski, and Carol Premock, they did regain it. Then at Vestal, Johnson City basketball guards went on to win our second Triple Cities' Championship this year. Wow! Look at those girls go.

ARCHERY—Out through the doors they come with bows and arrows in hand, our Maid Marions. There is no championship to strive for here, but membership in Archery Club is the goal for most of our archers. 150 points out of 30 arrows will place them in this select group of J.C. girls. Club members in turn teach the sport to newcomers.

BOWLING—Marsha Eckelberger and Barbara Namiotka topped the list of bowlers this year. Every Tuesday and Thursday night, the girls could be seen at Hi-Score Lanes in the midst of some valiant ATTEMPTS. The Channels really got a work-out in this, Johnson City's fourth intramural sport.

SOFTBALL—Will the Juniors win a second year? Will we be playing more noon baseball? These are the questions which will be answered before this final intramural competition is complete. Softball brings the maids out through the doors again and into the public eye. (If any public happens to be watching). Seniors will be hoping for a final victory with Sophs and Juniors trying for an upset.

Now you know the fun that's had behind those doors. If you haven't participated this year, don't forget, there'll be more next year. No boys—these sports are for GIRLS only.
